SHETLAND PONIES

AT THE

HIGHLAND AND AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S SHOW,

AT INVERNESS, 1892.

---

BOTH in numbers and in the quality of the stock, the show of Shetland ponies in the capital of the Highlands of Scotland was the best yet seen at any meeting of the Highland and Agricultural Society. No doubt this happy result was brought about to some extent by the liberal prizes which were offered to exhibitors, a handsome sum being contributed by the Shetland Pony Stud-Book Society.

For the best Shetland stallion above three years, there were nine entries. All the winners in this section were bred by Lord Londonderry. "Laird of Noss" (20), which was awarded the premier prize, is a very strong-boned Shetlander, of great substance, standing 38 inches high, and shown for the first time. He is sired by "Jack" (16), and his dam was "Seivwright." When the Duke of Edinburgh visited Lord Londonderry's stud in 1881, "Laird of Noss" and his half-brother "Odin" (32) were the two ponies His Royal Highness was particularly taken with, and their subsequent history has fully justified the opinion then expressed. "Odin," it may be remembered, won first prize in a very strong class at the Highland and Agricultural Society's Show, at Dumfries, in 1886. "Laird of Noss" has proved himself a grand stock-getter, and he is the sire of "Harold," the winner of the champion prize offered at Inverness by the Shetland Pony Stud-Book Society for the best Shetland pony—mare, stallion, or gelding. "Laird of Noss" is also the sire of a fine black filly which took the second place to "Harold" in the section for stallions and mares under three years. Mr. Andrew M'Farlane, Viewfield, Kingussie, gained the second prize, with "Marquis" (27), which took the same position at the Highland and Agricultural Society's Show, at Dundee, in 1890. "Marquis" is a pony of true Shetland character. Mr. Campbell Macpherson-Grant of Drumduan, Forres, was awarded third prize with "Young Viscount." This stallion is got by the famous "Lord of the Isles" (26), bred by Lord Londonderry, and more than once the first-prize winner at the Shows of the Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland. "Najal," which was awarded fourth prize, got scant justice, but he showed himself badly. At the Show at Lerwick, in the following month, he won first prize in the open class, against all comers.

For the best Shetland mare or gelding over three years, the large number of fourteen entries were forward. Lord Londonderry here again carried off the first ticket, with "Helga," sired by "Lord of the Isles" (26), and having for dam "Fra" (185). "Helga" is a very smart high-stepping Shetland pony of 36 inches, dark brown in colour, with an exceptionally pretty head. Her dam "Fra" is perhaps the finest mare in Lord Londonderry's stud. Mr. Cameron, Kirkton, Golspie, got second prize with a very nice pony, named "Rose of Kirkton," breeder unknown; and Mr. Campbell Macpherson-Grant of Drumduan got third ticket with a very pretty little mare, named "Erica," sired by the famous "Giant" (10), and having for dam "Emily" (104). Lord Londonderry, Mr. George Bruce, Tochineal, and Mr. Campbell Macpherson-Grant got commended tickets, with exceedingly good ponies.

In the section for stallions, mares, or geldings under three years there were five entries, some of them being of exceptional merit. Lord Londonderry was again placed first and second, with "Harold" and "Griselda," previously noticed; and Mr. Andrew M'Farlane got the third prize, with "Geordie," bred by exhibitor.

The champion prize, as already noticed, was awarded to the pony "Harold."
